CHAPTER 7

Notice is given that, subject to limited exceptions, a debtor must complete an instructional course in personal financial management in order to receive a discharge under chapter 7 (11 U.S.C. § 727). Pursuant to Rule 1007(b)(7) of the Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the debtor must complete and file the Certification About a Financial Management Course (Official Form 423)* as described in 11 U.S.C. § 111 unless the course provider has already notified the court of the debtor's completion of the course. To view a list of approved providers of Personal Financial Management Instructional Course, go to http://www.justice.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/ccde/cc\_approved.htm.

Debtor(s) and/or debtor's attorney is/are notified that Official Form 423 must be filed by debtor before a discharge can be entered unless the course provider has already notified the court of the debtor's completion of the course. Debtor and/or debtor's attorney is notified that the debtor must file Official Form 423 within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341 unless the course provider has already notified the court of the debtor's completion of the course. Failure to file the certification will result in the case being closed without an entry of discharge. If the debtor subsequently files a Motion to Reopen the Case to allow for the filing of the Official Form 423, the debtor must pay the full reopening fee due for filing the motion.

This is not the same form as the Certificate of Credit Counseling that you may have filed at the beginning of your case. This is a different form. A copy of the Official Form 423 is included with this notice. Additional copies of the Official Form 423 can be obtained at www.cacb.uscourts.gov.

Official Form 423

Certification About a Financial Management Course

12/15

If you are an individual, you must take an approved course about personal financial management if:

- you filed for bankruptcy under chapter 7 or 13, or
- you filed for bankruptcy under chapter 11 and § 1141 (d)(3) does not apply.

In a joint case, each debtor must take the course. 11 U.S.C. §§ 727(a)(11) and 1328(g).

After you finish the course, the provider will give you a certificate. The provider may notify the court that you have completed the course. If the provider does notify the court, you need not file this form. If the provider does not notify the court, then Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 must each file this form with the certificate number before your debts will be discharged.

- If you filed under chapter 7 and you need to file this form, file it within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341 of the Bankruptcy Code.
- If you filed under chapter 11 or 13 and you need to file this form, file it before you make the last payment that your plan requires or before you file a motion for a discharge under § 1141(d)(5)(B) or § 1328(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).

In some cases, the court can waive the requirement to take the financial management course. To have the requirement waived, you must file a motion with the court and obtain a court order.
